2. If Seller does not authorize Broker to market Property via MLS, Broker will instead market Property as an Office Exclusive Listing unless and until Seller desires to market Property via MLS. "Office Exclusive Listing" means Seller instructs Broker to restrict marketing of Property only to Broker's network. For each Office Exclusive Listing, Seller will sign and deliver concurrently with Agreement an MLS-required form certifying that Seller does not authorize Broker to publicly market the listing via MLS or any syndicated websites. Broker will enter the listing information into MLS within two (2) days of Listing Term, or as MLS rules require.

B. Third Party Websites. Seller authorizes OR Seller does not authorize Broker marketing Property through MLS or other means to also make listing data available to third-party websites. Seller understands that the listing data may get disseminated to third-party websites through means other than MLS regardless of the selection above. Seller acknowledges that the accuracy of the Broker will not show Property to prospective buyers or tenants and/or their agents while under "Coming Soon" status.

11. TYPES OF REAL ESTATE REPRESENTATION - DISCLOSURE AND INFORMED CONSENT.

Seller representation occurs by virtue of Agreement with Seller's consent to use Broker's services and may also include any brokers representing buyers who act on behalf of Seller as subagent of Broker. (Note: Broker may assist a buyer or prospective buyer by performing ministerial acts that are not inconsistent with Broker's duties as Seller's listing agent under Agreement.)

Buyer representation occurs when buyers contract to use the services of their own broker (known as a buyer representative) to act on their behalf.

Designated representation occurs when a buyer and seller in one transaction are represented by different sales associate(s) affiliated with the same broker. Each of these sales associates, known as a designated representative, represents fully the interests of a different client in the same transaction. Designated representatives are not dual representatives if each represents only the buyer or only the seller in a specific real estate transaction. In the event of designated representatives, each representative will be bound by client confidentiality requirements, set forth in the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION paragraph. The broker remains a dual representative.

Seller does not consent to designated representation and Seller does not allow Property to be shown to a buyer represented by this Broker through another designated representative associated with the firm OR

Seller consents to designated representation and allows Property to be shown to a buyer by this Broker through another designated representative associated with the firm.

Seller does not consent to dual representation and Seller does not allow Property to be shown to a buyer represented by this Broker through the same sale associate OR

Seller consents to dual representation and allows Property to be shown to a buyer by this Broker through the same sale associate.

An additional disclosure is required before designated or dual representation is to occur for a specific transaction.

Broker will notify other real estate licensees via the MLS of whether Seller consents to designated representation and/or dual representation.

12. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. Broker will maintain the confidentiality of all personal and financial information and other matters identified as confidential by the client which were obtained by Broker during the brokerage relationship, unless the client consents in writing to the release of such information or as otherwise provided by law. The obligation of Broker to preserve confidential information continues after termination of the brokerage relationship. Information concerning adverse material facts about Property is not considered confidential information.

13. AUTHORIZATION TO DISCLOSE OTHER OFFERS. In response to inquiries from buyers or brokers representing buyers, Broker may not disclose, without Seller's authorization, the existence of other written offers on Property. If Seller does give such authorization, Seller acknowledges that Broker and sales associate(s) must disclose whether the offers were obtained by the listing agent, another member of the listing Broker's firm, or by a broker representing buyer. Seller does OR does not authorize Broker and sales associate to disclose such information to buyers or brokers representing buyers.

14. COMPLIANCE WITH FAIR HOUSING LAWS. C. Access to Property. Seller will provide keys to Broker for access to Property to facilitate Broker’s duties under Agreement. Seller will allow Broker’s unlicensed assistants in the Property to perform ministerial acts as defined by 18VAC135-20-165.

If Property is currently tenant-occupied, Seller will provide Broker with any current lease documents and contact information for current tenant and will use best efforts to obtain the full cooperation of current tenants, in connection with showings and inspections of the Property.

D. Seller Assumption of Risk.

1. Seller retains full responsibility for Property, including all utilities, maintenance, physical security and liability until title to Property is transferred to buyer. Seller is advised to take all precautions for safekeeping of valuables and to maintain appropriate property and liability insurance through Seller’s own insurance company.

Broker is not responsible for the security of Property or for inspecting Property on any periodic basis. If Property is or becomes vacant during the Agreement Term, Seller is advised to notify Seller’s homeowner’s insurance company and request a “Vacancy Clause” to cover Property.

2. In consideration of the use of Broker’s services and facilities and of the facilities of any Multiple Listing Service, Seller and Seller’s heirs and assigns hereby release Broker, Broker’s designated agents, sub-agents, sales associates and employees, any Multiple Listing Service and the Directors, Officers and employees thereof, including officials of any parent association of REALTORS®, except for malfeasance on the part of such parties, from any liability to Seller for vandalism, theft or damage of any nature whatsoever to Property or its contents that occurs during the Agreement Term. Seller waives any and all rights, claims and causes of actions against them and holds them harmless for any property damage or personal injury arising from the use or access to Property by any persons during the Agreement Term.

23. SELLER DEFAULT.

A. Seller Default. In the event of Seller breach as set forth herein, such shall constitute Seller default and will serve as good cause for Broker to terminate Agreement. Upon such breach, Broker may, at Broker's option, provide Seller a Notice to Terminate Brokerage Representation Agreement. Upon Delivery of Notice, the Agency Relationship between the Parties will cease. Both parties will subsequently and immediately execute a Release of Brokerage Representation to terminate the Brokerage Relationship between the Parties and all respective rights and obligations of the Parties arising under Agreement will terminate, exclusive of Broker's duties in this Paragraph. If the Seller refuses to execute the Release when requested to do so in writing and a court finds that Seller should have executed the Release, Seller will pay the expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and costs, incurred by Broker in any litigation regarding this matter.

B. Broker Duties Upon Termination. In the event Broker terminates Agreement prior to the expiration of Agreement, Broker will promptly deliver to Seller copies of all contracts and other instruments entered into on behalf of Seller, remove Property from any listing services, and return to the Seller any keys to Property, if applicable. Broker may retain copies of such contracts and instruments for Broker's records.

24. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

A. Appropriate Professional Advice. Seller acknowledges that Broker is being retained solely as a real estate agent and not as an attorney, tax advisor, lender, appraiser, surveyor, structural engineer, mold or air quality expert, home inspector, solar panel expert, or other professional service provider. Broker can counsel on real estate matters, but if Seller desires legal advice, Seller is advised to seek legal counsel. Seller is advised to seek appropriate professional advice concerning the Property condition, financing, tax, title insurance, property insurance and legal matters.

B. Service Provider Referrals. Broker or Broker's sales associates may refer a service provider to assist Seller in this transaction. This referral is not an endorsement, guarantee or warranty as to the quality, cost and/or timeliness of the services to be provided. Seller is advised to independently investigate all options for service providers and consider whether any service provider will work effectively with Seller. Seller is free to reject any referred service provider for any or no reason.

C. Wire Fraud. Seller should never transmit nonpublic personal information, such as credit or debit card, bank account or routing numbers, by email or other unsecured electronic communication. There are numerous e-mail phishing scams that involve fraudulent requests to wire funds in conjunction with a real estate transaction. If Seller receives any electronic communication directing the transfer of funds or to provide nonpublic personal information, even if that electronic communication appears to be from a representative of Broker, do not respond. Such requests, even if they may otherwise appear to be from Broker, could be part of a scheme to defraud Seller by misdirecting the transfer of sale proceeds or using Seller's identity to commit a crime. If Seller should receive wiring instructions via electronic means that appear to be from a legitimate source involved in Seller's real estate transaction, Seller should verify—using contact information other than that provided in the communication—that the instructions were sent by an actual representative of the requesting company. Conversely, if Seller has provided wiring instructions to a third party, it is important to confirm with the representative of said company that the wire instructions are not to be substituted without Seller's verified written consent. When wiring funds, never rely exclusively on an e-mail, fax, or text communication.

D. Subsequent Offers After Contract Acceptance. After a sales contract has been ratified on Property, Broker recommends Seller obtain the advice of legal counsel prior to acceptance of any subsequent offer.

E. Governing Law. The laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia will govern the validity, interpretation and enforcement of Agreement, without regard to the application of conflict of laws.

F. Binding Agreement. Agreement will be binding upon the parties, and each of their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns. The provisions hereof will survive the sale of Property and will not be merged therein. Agreement, unless amended in writing by the parties, contains the final and entire agreement and the parties will not be bound by any terms, conditions, oral statements, warranties or representations not herein contained.

G. Severability. In the event any provision in Agreement is determined to be unenforceable, the remaining terms and provisions of Agreement shall not in any way be affected, impaired, or invalidated thereby.

25. ATTORNEYS' FEES. If any Party breaches Agreement and a non-breaching Party retains legal counsel to enforce its rights hereunder, the non-breaching Party will be entitled to recover against the breaching Party, in addition to any other damages recoverable against any breaching Party, all of its reasonable Legal Expenses incurred in enforcing its right under Agreement, whether or not suit is filed, and in obtaining, enforcing and/or defending any judgment related thereto. Should any tribunal of competent jurisdiction determine that more than one Party to the dispute has breached Agreement, then all such breaching Parties will bear their own costs. However, if the tribunal determines that one or more of the Parties is a "Substantially Prevailing Party," any such Substantially Prevailing Party will be entitled to recover from any of the breaching Parties, in addition to any other damages recoverable against any breaching Party, all of its reasonable Legal Expenses incurred in enforcing its rights under Agreement, whether or not suit is filed, and in obtaining, enforcing and/or defending any judgment related thereto. "Party" as used in this paragraph includes any third-party beneficiary identified herein. "Legal Expenses" as used in this paragraph includes attorney fees, court costs, and litigation expenses, if any, including, but not limited to, expert witness fees and court reporter fees.
