Designated representation occurs when a tenant and landlord in one transaction are represented by different sales associate(s) affiliated with the same broker. Each of these sales associates, known as a designated representative, represents fully the interests of a different client in the same transaction. Designated representatives are not dual representatives if each represents only the tenant or only the landlord in a specific real estate transaction. In the event of designated representatives, each representative will be bound by client confidentiality requirements, set forth in the CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION paragraph. The Broker remains a dual representative.

- Landlord does not consent to dual representation; thus, Landlord does not allow Premises to be shown to a tenant represented by this Broker through the same representative OR
- Landlord consents to dual representation and consents to allow Premises to be shown to a tenant represented by this Broker through the same representative.

An additional disclosure is required before designated or dual representation is to occur for a specific transaction.

Broker will notify other real estate licensees via the MLS of whether Landlord consents to designated representation and/or dual representation.

13. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION. Broker will maintain the confidentiality of all personal and financial information and other matters identified as confidential by the client which were obtained by Broker during the brokerage relationship, unless the client consents in writing to the release of such information or as otherwise provided by law. The obligation of Broker to preserve confidential information continues after termination of the brokerage relationship. Information concerning material adverse facts about Premises is not considered confidential information.

14. AUTHORIZATION TO DISCLOSE OTHER APPLICATIONS. In response to inquiries from tenants or brokers representing tenants, Broker may not disclose, without Landlord's authorization, the existence of other written offers on Premises. If Landlord does give such authorization, Landlord acknowledges that Broker and leasing associate(s) must disclose whether the offers were obtained by the listing agent, another member of the listing Broker's firm, or by a broker representing tenant. Landlord does OR does not authorize Broker and sales associate to disclose such information to tenants or their brokers.
